A Message from our District Deputy Grand Master

As Christmas approaches and we gather to celebrate that most momentous event which took place in Bethlehem 2,022 years ago (according to the history books) the meaning and ideals of that day long ago, has not changed. So as we embark on the annual gatherings of family, friends, neighbours and colleagues we can rejoice in the occasion of new hope for a better World to come.

As we gather to celebrate Christmas, with all the fine food, gifts fellowship let us also be mindful of those less fortunate. The message of Christmas should be an everyday message. Please take the time to call a long lost friend - or stranger. Check on a Brother Mason who you haven't seen for years. Maybe make sure that a senior citizen is not left out and lonely. And don't forget that new neighbour who has just arrived in Canada from a far off land.

As the New Year approaches along with the half-way point of the Masonic Year there is time and opportunity to consider activities and projects - for the Good of Masonry and the community. It is important to involve families too. Some ideas spring to mind if someone wants to organize them:

- 1) A back yard community ice rink competition.
- 2) A toboggan party.
- 3) An ice fishing outing.
- 4) Curling???
- 5) Drone flying (I wonder how many kids (9 to 90) who will get one for Christmas.
- 6) Recognition of educational achievements of the children, and grandchildren of our Lodge members. And of course there are the regular Lodge meetings with the added opportunity to make a point of visiting as many Lodges as possible and participating in regular Lodge activities.

A Message from our District Deputy Grand Master

May you and your families, all enjoy the very best for Christmas - and of course for 2023 - stay safe and be safe. Please take note of the quotes attached:

“How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single moment before beginning to improve the world.” - ANNE FRANK

“Perhaps you will forget tomorrow the kind words you said, but the recipient may cherish them over a lifetime.” - Dale Carnegie

The Mentors Minute

Brethren,

I just got off of the Grand Lodge Mentoring Matters zoom meeting so my minute of your life (that is if you read this) is going to be sharing a few of the ideas and pearls of wisdom presented to those in attendance by those in attendance. In no particular order:

1. The destiny of Freemasonry is in our hands...it is not a preordained destiny

a. Wow! Think about that and how the destiny for our Lodges is in our hands.

2. PBJ and we are not talking the sandwich!

a. Pride in being a Freemason. Pride in doing the work well. Pride.

b. Beauty in the craft and the goals Freemasonry espouses. Beauty.

c. Joy in the relationships we build with our brothers in the craft. Joy.

3. Freemasonry should be enjoyed...not endured!

a. WOW! These past couple of years have taken the enjoyment we used to experience in Lodge out of our monthly routines. But we can bring that enjoyment back!

That is it for now. Stay well and I look forward to sitting and serving with you in Lodge.

W. Bro. Robert Tailleir

A message from the District Blood Donor Chairman

Brethren,

I would like to get the word out that Saturday, December 17th the Sudbury Manitoulin District Masons have adopted the Plasma Centre in Sudbury.

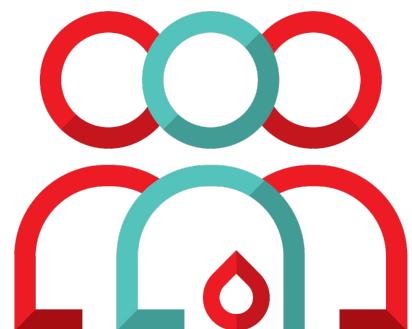

What does this mean?

It means that any Brother that goes in to donate plasma on the 17th will be greeted with a sign acknowledging our district's contribution and continued support towards plasma donation, it also means there will be festive treats and the chance of prizes. The event lasts all day so Brothers can book a time that is convenient for them, I will be attending at noon. If you are a seasoned veteran plasma donor or if this is going to be your very first donation come out and make a day of it!!

Also for those that cannot make the event on the 17th there is a promotion going on for the month of December for anyone that books an appointment and shows up for it they will receive a gift from Canadian Blood Services.

The Christmas and holiday season is upon us, this is the season we most associate with giving gifts, but what if this season along with all of your other gifts you gave a gift that cost you nothing except a bit of your time, this month Brethren I challenge you to get out there and give the gift of life by donating plasma, hopefully I will see you there!!

Bro. Clayton Kennedy,
District Blood/Plasma Donor Chairman

A Message from the Alzheimer's Society of Sudbury

A word of Appreciation and Recognition from:

The Alzheimer Society Sudbury-Manitoulin North Bay & Districts

We are very grateful to the Sudbury-Manitoulin District Masons for choosing us as a recipient charity for funds donated throughout the year. These funds assist us tremendously in providing essential programs and support services in our community. The number of persons living with a form of dementia is increasing rapidly, and the support of community minded persons like all of you make a world of difference, lets others know they are not alone and that there is hope for the future.

Thank you to all of you, on behalf of the Alzheimer Society.

A message from the Ontario Masons Social Media Committee:

Grand Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of Canada
in the Province of Ontario

R.W. Bro. Rick Cadotte, FCF, Chairman
Social Media Committee

November 13, 2022

Brethren,

The initial launch of Ontario Masons Instagram and Public Facebook page has been a success with your participation, for which we are thankful.

The next step is asking for your further participation by asking for your photos you wish to have published in the public domain. This committee will then post those approved photos on the Ontario Masons 'Public' Instagram account and the Ontario Masons 'Public' Facebook account. It is advisable that you secure the permission from the brethren in the photo to have those photos published in the public domain. This committee will assume you have secured those permissions once you have emailed them to this committee.

The email address you may send your photos to is:

ont.masons.socialmedia@gmail.com

Try to send at least two photos and this committee will decide which one will reflect best on the social media platform.

In the body of your email, please provide the details of the occasion along with a brief description of the occasion being celebrated in your photo along with the name of the lodge and the honoured participants you wish to be identified.

Please understand that this committee will do its best to accommodate all requests in a timely manner and cannot guarantee that all photos will be published.

A Message from NOSM:

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear NOSM University Community,

I am very pleased to share with you that the endowments funds held in trust at Laurentian University have been transferred to NOSM University. The total transfer—$14,250,861.68—is complete and will support our ongoing award and financial aid program.

We are now working diligently to reconcile the transfer of funds, which is comprised of the individually named awards that you helped create. Once reconciliation is verified, we will directly update each endowment fund holder on the respective balances and outline the next steps.

NOSM University bursaries have been frozen for our students in northeastern Ontario since Laurentian University's CCAA proceedings began in February 2021. Thank you to the donors who have help raise the funds needed each year since so that the bursaries could still be paid out. We are grateful that these funds alleviated our student debt burden during these tough times.

Our students graduate with nearly twice the debt of students at other medical schools in Canada. We are committed to equity in accessibility to health professions education for all eligible candidates. At NOSM U, socio-economic status should never be a barrier to becoming a doctor.

Recently, NOSM University secured its largest single gift in the history of the institution—a landmark donation of \$10 million from the FDC Foundation. They are challenging like-minded philanthropists to give. Dollar for dollar, every gift made to NOSM University for student financial aid will be matched up to $10 million.

If you would like to double your impact and renew support for your named endowment fund, please reach out to our Advancement team. Learn more about this matching initiative at future.nosm.ca.

If you have any questions regarding the endowment funds in question, financial aid for our students, or the matching initiative, please don't hesitate to contact Rahim Dharamsi, Chief Advancement Officer, at 705-562-7774 or by email to rdharamsi@nosm.ca.

Thank you, merci, miigwetch for your continued commitment to NOSM University.

Sudbury 4-H Awards Night

Bro. John Leonard attended the annual Sudbury 4-H Awards Night to accept thanks and recognition on behalf of W.Bro. Angus Morris and the officers and members of Nickel Lodge No.427.

For several years, Nickel Lodge has sponsored the Westmount 4-H Community Garden. Every year the garden produces over 300lbs of fresh local produce that is donated to the Blue Door Soup Kitchen and other programs for disadvantaged citizens in the community. The group regularly hosts growth (pun intended) and educational experiences for members of the youth group and the community at large.

Of special note this year, was the filming of a local television program "The Judi Show" that can be seen on Eastlink Channel 10 and a visit from the Minister of Agriculture and Agri-Food (The Honourable Marie-Claude Bibeau). Paulette and Wayne MacDonald and the Sudbury Clever Clovers send their thanks and recognition to all members of the craft, and their families, during this holiday season and into the new year.

A FASCINATING STORY - CANADIAN HISTORY EH!

Sources:

Masonry Today

Dictionary of Canadian Biography

Worshipful Brother Oronhyatekha (baptized Peter Martin) was born at Six Nations in 1841 and accomplished many things during his lifetime. Oronhyatekha was a Mohawk, and his name means Burning Cloud or Burning Sky in the Mohawk language. He was the Worshipful Master of Richardson Masonic Lodge in Stouffville, Ontario in 1894. He was the first known Aboriginal Oxford scholar; the second Aboriginal medical doctor in Canada; a successful CEO of a multinational financial institution; a native statesman; an athlete of international standing; and an outspoken champion of the rights of women, children, and minorities. While all this would be remarkable in any age, that he achieved it during the Victorian era when racism and assimilation were official state policies, has made him a figure approaching legend in some Aboriginal circles.

Born 10 August 1841, on the Six Nations of the Grand River First Nation near Brantford, Ontario, Oronhyatekha was selected at the age of twenty by the Six Nations Iroquois Confederacy (consisting of the Mohawk, Oneida, Onondaga, Cayuga, Seneca, and Tuscarora Nations) to give the welcoming address to the Prince of Wales during his visit to the New World. Prince Edward was sufficiently impressed that he urged the young Oronhyatekha to attend the University of Oxford, which he did in 1860. It is not certain what program Oronhyatekha followed, however, he returned to Canada two years later.

A FASCINATING STORY - CANADIAN HISTORY EH!

In 1863, Oronhyatekha returned to Canada to marry Ellen Hill, (Karakwineh, meaning "moving sun"), she was the great-granddaughter of Joseph Brant. They had six children, of whom a daughter and a son survived to adulthood. In 1863-1867, he took a medical degree at the University of Toronto.

As his medical practice grew, he also became a figure of increasing importance in Victorian Canada. About 1871, Dr Lucas invited him to become a partner in a practice in Stratford. The ambitious young doctor accepted and soon became involved in his only foray into active politics. He handled the campaigning for the Conservative party, in the federal election of 1872, in Wallace Township, north of Stratford. It was at this time that he met Sir John A. Macdonald, who recommended his appointment by the government as a consulting physician to the Mohawks at Tyendinaga.

In 1871, he became a member of Canada's National Rifle Team, and in 1874, was elected the President of the Grand Council of Canadian Chiefs, the highest ranking native statesman in North America.

In 1878, he applied to become a member of the Independent Order of Foresters, a fraternal institution. attached to an Insurance company. Although the Foresters' statutes explicitly limited its membership to white males. However, through his previous fraternal activity, and his standing within the community, he had gained sufficient status among Orangemen, of which he was a member. At that time only Orangemen were admitted to the IOF. He was granted special dispensation. Oronhyatekha was not only inducted as a member, but rose to become Supreme Chief Ranger of Foresters, the organisation's international CEO, in 1881, a position that he held for a record 26 years. During his tenure, he transformed the order into one of the wealthiest fraternal financial institutions in the Victorian world; today, it counts more than one-million members in North America, and the European Union.

Sudbury Manitoulin District Newsletter

A.F & A.M OF CANADA IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

A FASCINATING STORY - CANADIAN HISTORY EH!

While heading the Foresters, he built one of the first North American museums created by a Native individual. It was housed in the Foresters Temple in Toronto, until shortly after his death, and contained natural history artifacts, items from Canadian Native groups, and from cultures around the world. The artifacts were transferred to the Royal Ontario Museum. In the early 2000s, the Royal Ontario Museum and the Woodland Cultural Centre curated a show of his objects entitled Mohawk Ideals: Victorian Values.

Ironically, the one achievement of which Oronhyatekha was most proud was the enterprise his contemporaries regarded as his only significant failure. In 1904, he created an orphanage on the Bay of Quinte, Ontario, which was universally seen as extravagant and excessive by Victorian standards. It opened for operations in 1906, and Oronhyatekha described it as his life's crowning achievement. He did not live to see it closed the following year, as he died in 1907.

Bro. Oronhyatekha, suffered from diabetes, which is aggravated by stress. Characteristically, he had organized the details of his funeral, and it was a lavish affair. His body lay "in state" at Massey Music Hall in Toronto; within a four-hour period on 6 March, over 10,000 people paid their respects. That evening a memorial service was conducted at St Peter's Church (Anglican), which Oronhyatekha had attended. The following day his body was transported in a specially commissioned train for a family service at Christ Church on the Tyendinaga Reserve, where he was interred beside his wife and sons.

Over the period of Oronhyatekha's leadership, the IOF distributed more than $20 million in social-welfare benefits and insurance moneys to over 100,000 recipients. No single private or public institution in the world could claim this record of financial help in the same space of time. Not only was the IOF the most solvent fraternal institution in the world, but its first supreme chief ranger, as one American biographer noted, was "one of the strongest and greatest builders of fraternalism in America."
